

Deal or No Deal

Prepare and bring to your party:

- 3 "Surprise bags" which include catalog, order forms, Eye on Arbonne, samples, optional bottle of wine, free products, etc.
- A few "surprise gifts" for example: samples, free product, water bottle, etc.
- 12 envelopes numbered 1-12 with the printable coupons in them. (randomly mixed)
- A clipboard with your open dates for the next 4 weeks so they can choose their date once the party is over

At the end of party (after talking about ways to win) say:

Ok we are going to play a game and everyone has a chance to win! Everyone pick an envelope, but don't open it yet!

Okay, this is deal or no deal! Inside the envelope could be free shipping, a discount on your order tonight, a surprise gift, and one even contains a GRAND PRIZE! In some of the envelopes, you'll win both a prize and me!!! Yes, me... All you have to do is gather 3-4 friends for your own Arbonne facial, wellness or make up night! You'll get big discounts for hosting, and free products! PLUS.... The first 3 people to book a party tonight get to take home one of these surprise bags! Don't worry, half the envelopes have a party, half don't! And I'll honor whatever you get! If you know you want to host, you can just say "Party in a bag!" And you'll automatically get a party, the surprise bag, plus $5 off your order tonight! So ok, I'm going to ask each of you now, and you can say "Pass", and hand the unopened envelope back to me, "play" and open your envelope to see what you win, or "Party in a bag!" And automatically get the surprise bag, a party and your $5 discount! So, let's start with....

(Karen!) Pass, play, or party in a bag?!
